

Tom Evans
CCC ultra marathon winner and aspiring Commonwealth Games
2022 athlete

Torin Douglas
BBC media correspondent for 24 years

Ed Giddins
England cricketer

Hugo Southwell
Rugby player, earned 59 caps for Scotland

Michael Fish
Weather forecaster for BBC and Met
Office, author

John Wells
Prolific actor/satirist, pictured as Denis Thatcher in For Your Eyes Only

Chloe Cook
GB triathlete and Olympic hopeful

David Winn
Benefactor, son, father and grandfather of OEs and the school's single most generous donor. Vice President of Eastbourne
College Charity

Ian Grant
Plastic and reconstructive surgery,
Cambridge

John Gosden
Racehorse trainer, recent winner of Prix de
L'Arc, pictured with Frankie Dettori

Harry Bentley
Multiple champion jockey in Middle East

Patti Clare
Played Mary Taylor in Coronation
Street, three times winner of Best
Comedy award

Mark Lock
70 caps for Wasps rugby

Johnny Mercer
MP for Plymouth Moor View and leading advocate for mental health issues

Lord Richards
Chief of Defence Staff, head of British Armed Forces

Prof James Moon
Clinical director of Barts Heart
Centre, professor of cardiology

Lt-Col Frederick Minchin
CBE, DSO, MC who died attempting the first East-
West transatlantic flight

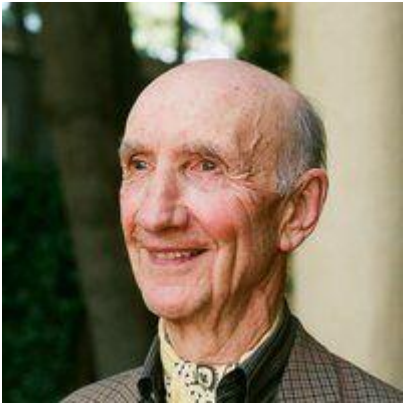

Maurice Trapp
President of New Zealand rugby, former Auckland coach

Ian Fraser

Musical director of legends such as Bing Crosby, Julie Andrews and David Bowie; 11 times Emmy award winner

Prof Parlett

Leading figure in maths, electrical engineering and computer science at Berkeley

Hugh Skinner

Actor, recently played Will in W1A and young Harry in Mamma Mia 2

Eddie Izzard

(photo by Hamish Brown)
Comedian, actor, political activist

Prof Michael Powell

Pioneer in theoretical physics and computational maths at Cambridge

Marcus Creed

Conductor for Danish National Vocal Ensemble and professor at Hochschule fur Musik Koln

Ed Speleers

Actor, recently played Jimmy in Downton Abbey, Charlie in Rain Man and currently in Outlander

His Excellency Nasser Judeh

Jordanian Deputy Prime Minister and minister for foreign affairs

Katy Tubb

Director Tea Buying and Blending at Tata Global Beverages, specialising in sustainability

Nick Atkinson and Luke Potashnick

Musicians in millennial indie rock band Rooster whose hit Come get Some spent six weeks in the top ten

Liam Sharp

Wonder Woman illustrator for Marvel and DC Comics. Co-founder with OE Ben Wolstenholme of Madefire - a 'revolution in digital comics'.