

Blackwater House

Blackwater was opened as a boys boarding house in 1873. An extension known as Green Lodge was added to the Grange Road side in 1987

Blackwater as a girls house

In 1995 the house was demolished and reopened as a girls day house in September 1996.

The new building was opened by the Right Hon. Virginia Bottomley MP, seen here with Headmaster Charlie Bush on the right

A tree planting ceremony to celebrate the opening of the the new house: Lauren Bicknell (Watt & Blackwater 1995-97) is holding the time capsule while fellow pupils Vicky Regan (Blackwater 1995-97) and Jacqueline Shepherd (Watt & Blackwater 1995-97) look on. New housemaster Charlie Bostock is on the right

1996

The new Blackwater House on the right with the former Green Lodge (built in 1987 as part of the former boys Blackwater house) on the left

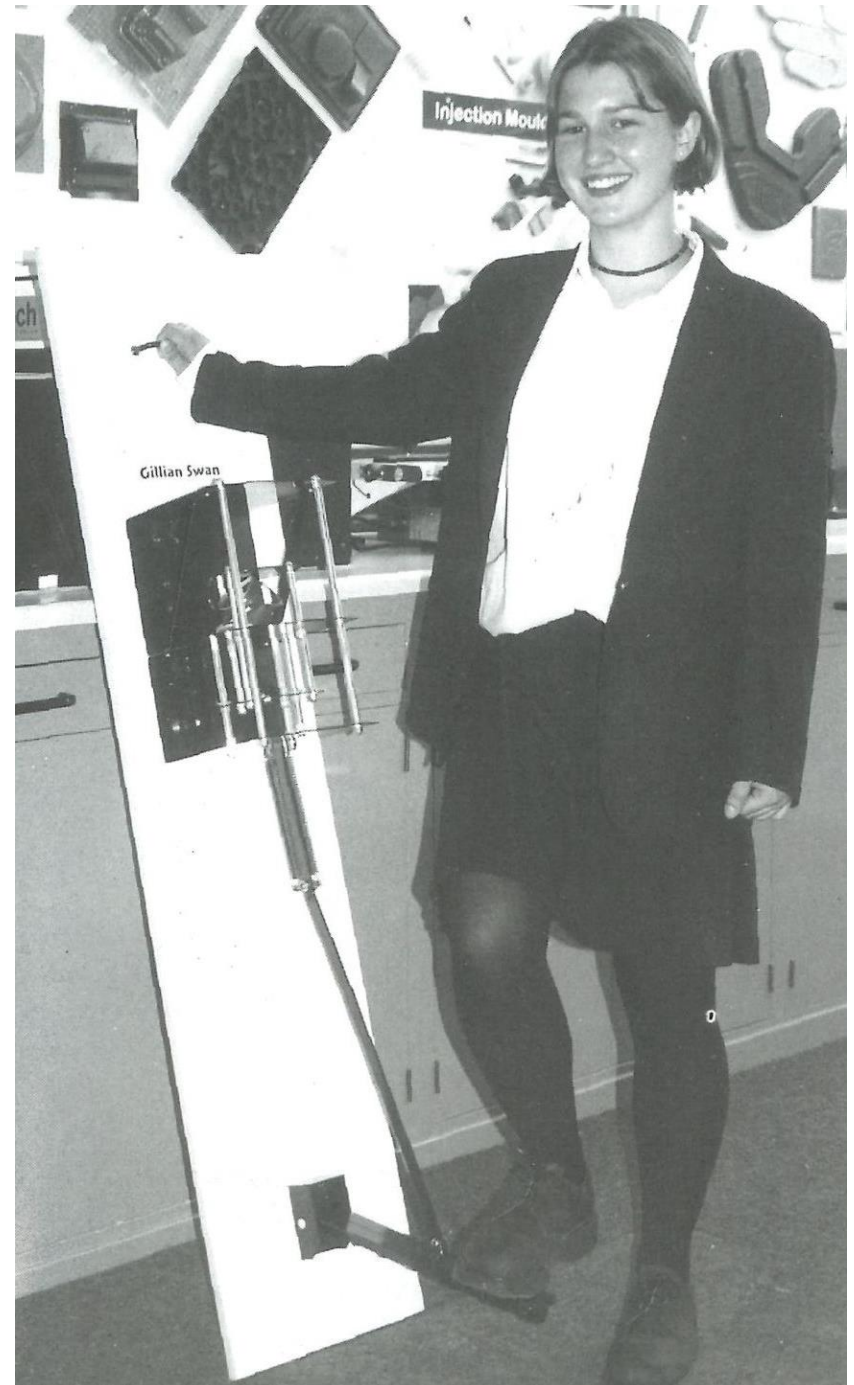

1997

Charlie and Clare Bostock entertain in the Blackwater common room

1998

Gilli Swan (Watt & Blackwater 1996-2000)
with her prizewinning can-crusher

2004

2005

2014

Santa Paws house dinner, Christmas 2014

2015

Collection for the Eastbourne Foodbank appeal